KNOWING JESUS AS THE GOOD SHEPHERD & SHARING THE RISEN CHRIST WITH ALL.

Heaven on Earth

“Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing at the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders . . . and I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Look! God’s dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. ‘He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death’ or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.” Revelation 5:6; 21:3,4

Why go to church? I’m not sure if you have ever thought about such a thing. Maybe you’re on auto pilot and when Sunday comes you just get up, put on your ‘Sunday best’ and head off to church but . . . why go to church? People could do all kinds of different things on a “freed up” Sunday morning and yet, all around the world – from the United States, to Nigeria, to Russia – people get up and go to church. That still doesn’t answer the question though, why go to church?

Maybe we would respond to such a question and say, “Well, the third commandment says we should worship.” This is true. The Third Commandment does say “Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy.” However, I hope there is a greater reason why you are drawn to come and worship with other Christians. I hope it is not just the whip of God’s law that gets you out of bed, dressed and moving to church (although sometimes that is needed!)

Maybe take a minute right now and re-read the excerpt above from Revelation. That passage gives us quite an amazing picture, doesn’t it? The book of Revelation gives us a glimpse into heaven. In that glimpse we see Christ, the Lamb who looks as if it had been slain, surrounded by His followers as He creates a new creation for all of us. That glimpse we see of heaven in Revelation, is also a picture you witness as we gather for worship. As we gather together, heaven is cracked open through the wounds of Christ and His mercy spills down into this world. In our sanctuary Jesus Himself stands among us, the living Lamb who looks as if He had been slain, and He feeds us, He speaks to us, He comforts us. Jesus comes to forgive us and refresh us for the days ahead. I hope this is why we gather around God’s Word and Sacrament. Anyone can be beaten into church with the law of a commandment, but I hope we all yearn to be near Christ; He certainly yearns to be near you!

Hope to see you on Sunday and bring a friend!

Blessings,

Pastor Becky

DUDLEY TAILS

Submitted by Cheryl Wildrick

As Dudley raced along the walking path with his master in tow, squirrels scattered, and occasionally a cat bolted out of his way. Behind, and around the end of the barn, the path curved, and entered a wooded area. There, it continued to curve between tall, old trees... (many of which had died... 'lost their bark... or 'dropped their dead branches.)

The path curved more sharply now, and as Dudley disappeared from view, (still pulling his master forward), then Dudley began to bark loudly.

Suddenly, a short animal with a long busy tail, (and a thick mahogany - colored coat) ran past Dudley's master. It jumped onto a tree, scurried into the tree's crotch, and sat motionless... while staring down at Dudley.

With his nose to the ground, Dudley was returning to his master. Dudley stopped at the base of the "fisher's" tree. He could go no further. He had lost the scent which he had been following.

Dudley's master glanced up, to the crotch of the tree, and made sure that the, "fisher" was still there. Then Dudley was picked up, and he was hurried back to the safety of their home.

Once inside the house, Dudley's master put him down and said:

"Dudley, you were very fortunate today. Without knowing it, you were running into danger. "Danger" (the fisher) was waiting for you. You could have disappeared... or died painfully."

People too, may be running into danger... They may be choosing dangerous or risky activities.

- They take guns to school or employment.
- They may use drugs sold on the black market.
- They walk alone after dark.
- They may chug excess amounts of alcohol.
- They may have risky sex with little-known people...

Danger may be waiting for people also. They do not choose:

- to be shot, due to the gun violence of others.
- to die because a lethal drug was in their recreational drug.
- to fall off a cliff in a recreational park.
- to be abducted and sold as a slave.
- to be injured by a shark while swimming.

What is in people's control? What isn't? What can we do? What is not worth the effort? Where can we go, in times of trouble and fear?

The Old Testament book of Psalms (Chapter 46, verse one) says, "God is our refuge and strength, an ever present help in trouble." and Psalms (46:2) says, "Therefore, we will not fear."

There's the answer: In times of trouble, do not fear. Go to God for refuge and strength. God is our "ever present help."

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES NEWS

Submitted by Peggy Pearce

Cuba UMC was the meeting place for the Council of Churches on May 15th. Representatives from all Cuba churches were at the meeting.

The Food Pantry report for March, April and May (to the 12th) was reviewed. There were seven requests for food assistance and three requests for gas assistance in that time period. With the exception of canned vegetables and fruit, the Pantry shelves need replenishing. Cold cereal, one-dish meals (i.e. Manwich, stew, etc.) and boxed meals (i.e. Hamburger Helper, etc.) would be especially helpful at this time. Not essential but enjoyed would also be snack bars, crackers and cookies.

Our church will participate in the Church Walking Tour planned for Saturday, July 16. If you would like a chance to visit Cuba's historic churches, meet at Our Lady of Angels Roman Catholic Church that morning at 10 a.m. After touring Our Lady, the tour will proceed to Christ Episcopal, First Baptist, Cuba UMC and finishing at North Park Wesleyan. Only twenty minutes is allotted for each church with time built in for traveling among them, the tour ending at 1 p.m. Schedule may change so watch for more details both at church and in the Cuba Patriot.

The Council's popular "Jail Bail" will be back during Dairy Days on the corner of West Main and South Streets, Friday, June 17 from 5 to 7 p.m. Pay to put someone in jail; pay to get them out. All money earned will go to the Food Pantry. Would you be willing to help from 6-6:30 p.m.? If so, talk to Council representatives Mary Hupp or Peggy Pearce.

Church representatives shared information from their congregations:

- Christ Episcopal—Father Brian Belden is substituting two Sundays (second and fourth) monthly while the Vestry continues its search for a replacement for Father Hamlin.
- Cuba First Baptist—Search for pastor continues; planning for summer activities like VBS and camping.
- North Park Wesleyan—Vacation Bible School is planned for the second week in July (July 12th-16th) with a construction theme.
- Our Lady of Angels—No new news.

The Council is on summer hiatus and will meet again Sunday, September 11 at 5 p.m. at Christ Episcopal Church.

My Father Knows Everything

Have you seen the coffee mugs that say, “I don’t need Google, my father knows everything”? Well, our earthly fathers may know a lot, but they know next to nothing in comparison to our heavenly Father.

God knows every minor detail. In Matt. 10:30 Jesus said, “even the hairs of your head are all numbered.” Wow, every hair on our heads – numbered! He knows the shape of every snowflake, the number of raindrops in every storm, the color of each feather on each peacock, every detail of the complexities of human DNA, every whisper, and every heartbeat. God knows the future. In Isaiah 46 the prophet Isaiah shows how God is fundamentally distinct from the idols of their day because he only knows the future. This is demonstrated by prophecy. The Lord said, “I am God, and there is none like me, declaring the end from the beginning and from ancient times things not yet done.” He knows all events past, present, future and possible. God knows our thoughts. The Psalmist in Psalm 139:2 wrote, “you discern my thoughts from afar” and in verse 4, “Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O LORD, you know it altogether.” God knows our hearts. 1 Kings 8:39 says, “for you, you only know the hearts of all the children of mankind.”

In fact, God knows everything. Heb. 4:13 (NIV) says, “Nothing in all creation is hidden from God’s sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.” What does God not know? Nothing. What does God know? Everything. He has never learned anything. He simply knows everything because he is God. His knowledge is totally comprehensive. His all-encompassing gaze, like a massive tsunami wave sweeps up everything. Child of God, you can trust this God! He knows, he knows! Let that be a pillow for you to lay your head and rest. What will happen with your job? Why did your Mom die? He knows. Nothing catches him off guard, and he is a Good, Good Father. Remember too, God knows more about you child of God than you will ever know. He knows more of your sinfulness than you will ever know. Yet knowing all that he still loves you more than you will ever know.

UMW NEWS

United Methodist
Women

The United Methodist Women met in the Sanctuary on Saturday, May 21, at 10 a.m.

We have been approached by the Cuba Circulating Library about holding a possible food fund raiser on Saturday, July 16 during the library’s block party. After discussion it was decided to do so and a menu of hot dogs, small bags of snack items, cookies and water/soda was developed. Final details will be worked out at the June UMW meeting, but the group is grateful to the Claysons for volunteering the use of their grill as well as cooking the hot dogs. We are turning to the congregation for donations of rolls, paper plates, napkins, condiments (ketchup, mustard, relish, chopped onions) and cookies. A sign-up sheet will be available at church. Monetary donations to help defray the cost of the hot dogs, snacks and drinks are also appreciated. One tent has been offered but perhaps a second would be welcome if someone has one that could be borrowed. We’ll also need coolers and ice for the drinks.

A rummage sale is planned for August 11, 12 and 13 with set up the week before. We will use the same successful format as last year, selling things by the bag: $5 day one, $3 day two and $2 day three. Although the “glory hole” looks pretty full at the moment, more ‘rummage’ will be needed to have a successful sale. So please sort through your closets, cupboards and drawers and bring your ‘treasures’ to the church. Things can be placed in the last two Sunday school rooms in the basement. More details closer to the sale will be forthcoming.

The United Methodist Women are truly appreciative of all the support received from the congregation for our various projects.

The next meeting of the UMW will be Saturday, June 18 at 10 a.m. All women of the church are invited ... we hope to see you there.
